

MUSCLEN

Synergistic Mixture of Concentrated Herbal Extract and Amino Acids to improve muscles, production performance and general health of the flock

FEED
ADDITIVES

Composition Each liter of solution contains: Garlic Concentrated Extract 10 g
Thyme Concentrated Extract 25 g | L-Lysin HCL 180 g | L-Methionine 20 g

Target Animal

poultry

Indications

Musclen® is used when the growth rate, production, and appetite decreased. Musclen® Due to the presence of plant extracts and lysine and methionine amino acids can stimulates the digestive system, improves feed consumption and helps muscle growth instead of fat. Therefore, It is prescribed during digestive and weight gain disorders, during antibiotic treatment and during stress, to improve and increase the performance of the herd.

Dosage and Administration

1 liter of Musclen® in 1000 L of drinking water. It can be used 1-2 consecutive weeks under super-vision of a clinician.

Contraindications

None

Withdrawal period

None

Storage

Keep it in room temperature and away from direct sunlight.

Keep the lid of container closed.

Precautions

Keep out of reach of children.

Shake well before use.

Packaging

1 Liter Bottle

